About The Pledge

When you sign The Pledge you add your support to the growing movement against airport expansion. By standing together and making our opposition public we can persuade Government and industry to rethink their policy now.

The Airport Pledge is managed by a coalition of organisations campaigning against airport expansion. It is hosted by the climate change network Rising Tide.

How we will use your details

Your full name, address, and e-mail contacts are on a secure database and will never be given to anyone. Your mailing details will only be used to send a letter welcoming you to The Pledge, and then occasional mailings on ways that you can take personal action.
